Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

—Mark 8:34

Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. "Taking up my cross" means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it's convenient for me.

ST MATTHEW FEAST DAY — SEPTEMBER 21

In reflecting on Jesus and His relationship with St Matthew the Apostle, Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI said the following:

"Jesus does not exclude anyone from his friendship. Indeed, precisely while he is at table in the home of Matthew-Levi, in response to those who expressed shock at the fact that he associated with people who had so little to recommend them, he made the important statement: 'Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick; I came, not to call the righteous, but sinners.'" (Mark 2:17)

"The good news of the Gospel consists precisely in this: offering God's grace to the sinner! ... Thus, in the figure of Matthew, the Gospels present to us a true and proper paradox: those who seem to be the farthest from holiness can even become a model of the acceptance of God's mercy and offer a glimpse of its marvelous effects in their own lives."

The name Matthew means 'gift of God.' St Matthew is known as a patron saint of accountants, bankers, civil servants and tax collectors.

CONDOLENCES & ASSURANCE OF PRAYERS

Christ the Redeemer Parish extends condolences and assurance of prayers to the family of Leo Laturus—to his wife, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, sisters, sister-in-law, and numerous nieces, nephews and special friends.

We also extend condolences and assurance of prayers to the family of Melva Jurgens—to her children, grandsons, numerous in-laws, nieces, nephews and friends.

We pray that heavenly choirs of angels welcome Leo and Melva into their eternal home, and that God's divine peace comfort the families during this time of profound sorrow.

BECOME A SCHOOL BOARD TRUSTEE

Catholic trusteeship is a unique vocation which serves the Church and the community. The Catholic school board trustee plays an integral part in ensuring that Christ is the heart and soul of every Catholic school. The uniqueness of Catholic education lies in the fact that its purpose and end is holiness. This is the legacy that Catholic school board trustees proudly embrace.

In Catholic education we open up the hearts of our students to find Christ in places that society and culture will not go, but where Christ most assuredly can be found.

Please consider taking on this important role. The next election will take place November 13, 2024. Nomination deadline is October 9. For more info, or to view the requirements, visit sbsba.ca
