

Lay Formation Program

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program is an academic and pastoral formation program for Catholic men and women interested taking the 'next step' on their Christian journey. This program builds on four key pillars of the New Evangelization; it provides a deepening awareness of God's personal love , creates opportunities for encountering Christ and entering into a transformative relationship with him, helps individuals to integrate that relationship into every aspect of their lives, and empower women and men to follow Christ's commission to "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Matt 28:19).

Fall classes for this 3-year program will be held from October to June at on the Campion Campus. Our weekend sessions begin Friday evenings at 7:30 p.m. and conclude by 2:00 p.m on Sunday afternoons.

For our out of town participants, overnight accommodations are available on Campus. All meals will be provided by Luther College.

The program is largely subsidized by the Archdiocese of Regina. To help defray expenses for the weekends, the candidate and the parish are asked to contribute:

Candidate: $600.00

Parish: $600.00

*The yearly cost is subject to increase due to inflation.

A bursary fund is available to assist both candidates and parishes with program costs.

For more information on program, or bursary funding please contact Eric at the Archdiocesan Centre via email by phone at 306-352-1651 Ext. 6724 or call Christ the Redeemer Parish Office.
